Situated between the Arabian Sea in the west and Tamil Nadu in the east, this city derives its name from Anantha Padmanabha, an incarnation of Lord Vishnu. It is adorned with numerous ancient temples, with the iconic Sree Padmanabha Swamy Temple serving as the centerpiece. The city has been thoughtfully constructed around seven low hills, with the wooded highlands of the Western Ghats on its eastern and northeastern borders, offering captivating picnic spots. A lengthy shoreline graced by internationally renowned beaches, historic landmarks, serene backwater stretches, and a vibrant cultural heritage render this district a highly sought-after tourist destination. Key attractions in Trivandrum include the Padmanabhaswamy Temple, Kuthira Maligai Palace, Zoo, and Art Gallery. (Please note that all places are closed on Mondays, except for the Padmanabhaswamy Temple.) Following your sightseeing adventure in Trivandrum, your day will conclude with a departure to the airport or railway station for your onward journey.
