(13 Feb) DAY 4 ALMATY- AAKbulak Ski Resort

Preparations and instructions from the guide.

At 10:00 – ascent by gondola cable car to the slope with altitude 2006 m a.s.l. Then the chairlift will deliver you further to the highest point of the resort with “black slopes” only. Slope gradient in this zone is from 25 to 45 degrees. Parts of descent pass both in open spaces and in the treeline, among the Tien-Shan firs with lots of drops. A huge mass of white fluffy snow and an amazing panorama of surrounding high rocky mountains will leave the brightest impression.

Skiing on the “black slopes” of the resort with a guide until 13:30. The guide knows the resort “like the palm on his hand” and will show you the most interesting places, hidden from the majority of riders. Riding will be fun, intense and full of adventures – you will not even notice how fast time is running.

A picnic lunch will be arranged on the benches at the observation ground until 14:30. You will have a rest, take a sunbath and admire views of the big mountains located nearby, and perhaps, even see a huge and beautiful prey bird – a bearded vulture.

After lunch you will shred again with a new portion of energy until 16:00, and then will ski down to the parking lot. Packing stuff and departure to Almaty. Arrival at Almaty at about 19:00.

Upon your wish we can arrange an evening traditional aka saka bath-house in the mountain area nearby resort (optionally, extra charge) with aroma and heating procedures, cooling down in the font or river and drinking tea with herbs and honey.

(14 Feb) Day 5 Full Day Alma-Arasan Gorge

The Alma-Arasan tour offers a remarkable journey into the pristine natural beauty and therapeutic wonders of the Alma-Arasan Valley, located just a stone's throw away from Almaty, Kazakhstan. With a captivating blend of nature, culture, and relaxation, this tour promises an unforgettable experience for travelers seeking a unique escape.
