Italy, the city of romance and art. If passion was a country, Italy would be it. This trip will take you through some of the most historically passionate time in Italy, starting from Rome where the Vatican City stands. Then head to the Basilica of St. Peter's which is one of Michelangelo and Bernini's masterpiece. In Rome, the Colosseum remains as one of the most iconic landmarks, an amphitheatre that was where the city's best entertainment was served. It's so well-preserved, much like the Trevi Fountains that can be found on the intersection of Via De'Crocicchi, Via Poli and Via Delle Muratte. Hop on a boat from Capri, that'll take you to the mesmerizing Blue Grotto, a small cavern where the azure water glows. We'll then make a day trip to the small towns of Amal , Sorrento, and Positano. Then we drive to Florence, home to a number of stunning architectures, such as Duomo di Firenze or the Cathedral of Saint Mary of the Flower. Giotto's Campanile is where you can get the best view of the Cathedral. The Florence Baptistery is where you can see the Gates of Paradise that was made by a goldsmith and sculptor depicting scenes in the Old Testament. Take in the view from Piazzale Michelangelo for the best view of the city. We're definitely not missing out on the leaning
