Tentative Itinerary

Day 1 Pickup From Gurugram to Jaipur

When you arrive at Jaipur Airport, you will be given a cordial welcome by our representative and be accompanied to your hotel.

Post your check-in process, you can head out to survey the city. Your first destination in Jaipur will be the much talked about, City Palace. The City Palace is a blend of the royal architectural style of the Mughal and Rajasthani. It has a complex of courtyards, gardens and buildings. In fact, the royal family still occupies a part of the complex.

The museum in the palace has one of the finest collections of its kind. Just between the armoury and the Deewan-E-Aam, is the open courtyard known as Sarvathobhadra, which holds in its centre a beautiful pink-and-white, gallery that was once used as Deewan-E-Khas.

Right outside the City Palace is a local market. The market offers traditional Rajasthani outfits, artefacts, decorative jewellery, sweets, etc. that you could buy as lovely souvenirs to take back home.

To end your day, you will be escorted to your hotel for some delicious dinner and a good night's sleep.

Day 2 Sightseeing in Jaipur

Being day 2 with a healthy breakfast and be ready to make your way out in the city, yet again. Your first destination for the day will be the Hawa Mahal.

The Hawa Mahal is also known as the "Palace of the Winds". The name comes from its design that showcases 953 windows, or as they call it, jharokas. The 5 storey building is outlined in the shape of the crown of Lord Krishna. In addition to that, its façade resembles a honeycomb of a beehive, now isn't that interesting?

After your time at the Hawa Mahal, you will be heading to the Amber Fort. The fort stands on top of an easily scalable mountain, which is situated right next to the beautiful Maota Lake. The fort's majestic appearance and its geographical advantages make it a special place to visit. It presents a fascinating blend of Hindu and Muslim architecture and is built using red sandstone and white marble.

Post this gripping day, you can catch up on some rest at your overnight stay.

Day 3 Sightseeing in Jaipur

For today your first destination on the list, after a delicious breakfast, will be the Nahargarh Fort.

The Nahargarh Fort is famous for its cycling expedition and we are sure some adventure will not cause much trouble. Nahargarh Fort along with Amer and Jaigarh forts used to form an important defence ring for the city. Located on one of the oldest hills of Aravalli, this fort offers breath-taking views of the Pink City.

There are many buildings and structures within Nahargarh fort. There is a temple inside the fort, dedicated to the Rathore prince, Nahar Singh Bhomia. Another attraction in the fort is the Madhavendra Bhawan built by Sawai Madho Singh and Deewan-E-Aam, an open-air enclosure where the king met the common men and listened to their problems and complaints.

Next up on your list for the day is the very famous Jantar Mantar. Jantar Mantar are not just two magical words, it literally means, instruments for measuring harmony of the heavens. The Jantar Mantar houses various architectural and astrological instruments that have caught the interests of astronomers, historians and architects around the world. It is considered to be one of the largest observatories ever built. Now that's someplace to be at.

Day 4 Travel from Jaipur to Pushkar and Day Excursion at Ajmer (146.3 km. / 2 hrs. 50 minutes)

After an early breakfast, you will hit the road to travel from Jaipur to Pushkar. The distance to be covered is 146.3 kms and it should take you around 2 hours and 50 minutes.

Upon your arrival and after your check-in formalities, you will head straight to the Brahma Temple. Well, we thought its best to start your Pushkar tour with a spiritual touch. The Brahma temple in Pushkar is a religious hotspot. The temple is dedicated to Lord Brahma but one of his ladies Gayatri is also worshipped at the temple. You should also look out for the amazing architecture that the temple holds.

Next up on your list is the Pushkar Lake. The lake is one of the most prominent spots of pilgrimage as well as the site of the world famous Pushkar Fair. Encircled by numerous temples and Ghats (bathing spots), the lake draws thousands of devotees every year to its threshold to gain spiritual distinction and attain salvation by taking a dip in its holy waters.

Next, you will head to Ajmer which is a 40 minutes’ drive from Pushkar. Visit the very famous Ajmer Sharif Dargah. It is believed that devotees who pray here with a pure heart gets all his/her wishes fulfilled. It is a perfect place to connect with your spiritual self and also gaze at the stunning architectural wonder.

After a tiring day, you can head back to your hotel in Pushkar and prepare for the early morning travel. Once you are done with the final destination of your day i.e. Jantar Mantar, Stay at Pushkar Hotel.
