This afternoon, we visit to the Ho Chi Minh Complex, inclusive of Ba Dinh Square, Ho Chi Minh’s Mausoleum (from outside as closed in the afternoon), as well as his private residence from 1954 until 1969. The wooden ethnic minority style house, which was built on stilts, is surrounded by lovely peaceful gardens. In the same complex you will see the One Pillar Pagoda, founded by King Ly Thai To in 1049. This structure has become an important symbol for the people of Hanoi. Continue your exploration at the Temple of Literature, the first national university in Vietnam. Founded in 1070 by Emperor Ly Thanh Tong, the temple was initially dedicated to Confucius and has since honored Vietnam’s most esteemed scholars and literary figures. The temple's serene courtyards and traditional architecture offer a glimpse into Vietnam's rich educational heritage.

Continue visit Tran Quoc Pagoda, locates on a small peninsula on the East side of the dazzling West Lake, this is the most ancient pagoda in Hanoi with its history line of more than 1,500 years. Continue visit the picturesque Hoan Kiem Lake and then take a leisure walk around the Old Quarter of Hanoi, a fascinating network of narrow alleys and shop houses also known as ‘The 36 Streets’ – each street being named after the merchandise traditionally sold there, ranging from fabrics, medicines to crafts.

to Emperor Dinh, Emperor Le, their sons, and the Queen, and learn about the historical significance of this former capital.
